Recycling Update/Coordinator Cynthia Niciecki

Volunteer needed for Saturday, December 12, 2009

Lois Voronin volunteered for the December 12th recycling day.

Cynthia Niciecki reported an update of the November 14th recycling day. She stated that everything went well, and that the cub scouts were there to help out. She reported that she took a 5 gallon container filled with batteries to the County Complex, and that there were several residents that dropped off computer accessories. Cynthia explained that she spoke to a representative from M & A Recycling in Hillsborough NJ, and stated that they would be able to bring a dumpster over to the Kingwood Township depot for metal items to be recycled. She also stated that the dumpsters are filling up every other week. Cynthia Niciecki will be asking the County at the next SWAC meeting if they have a place to dispose of freon from coolant systems, and what the charge would be to get rid of the item.

Old Business

Review Response to the Letter of October 31, 2009 – Scott Brubaker Asst. Commissioner

No response from Mr. Brubaker at this time, still waiting to hear.

Update to Open Space & Recreation Plan

Chairwoman Deborah Kratzer noted that there will be a meeting of the project team in December. She stated that they will be planning a public meeting to speak about the Open Space and Recreation Plan to get input from the public. She noted that she has been working on a survey to distribute to the residents for the plan.

Sustainable Jersey Program – Update

Elaine Niemann noted that two more individuals have joined the green team. She explained that they are still working on the solar panels for the Township Garage. She explained that the paperwork is ready to submit for the energy audit, and the Green Team is reviewing groundwork for 2010.

MEL – Update

Elaine Niemann will be contacting Environ. She read aloud an e-mail from MEL Representative Mr. Gavin.

Open Space

Open Space Chairman Sandra McNicol reviews meeting of November 5, 2009

Sandra McNicol stated that the Open Space question that was on the ballot, passed in Kingwood Township. She explained that the Crouse property closed, the Clark property closed, and that Richard Dodds is in the process of posting the Clark property. She explained that everyone is hoping that the property on Horseshoe Bend closes before the end of the year. She explained that Liz Schmid is working on the farmland preservation element, and that it had been sent to the State for approval. Elaine Niemann noted that the Gergar property will be the Township's property later this week.

Public Comment – Privilege of the Floor

Gail Ashley noted that the sign for recycling is no longer on the corner of Rt. 519 and Union Road. The Commission all agreed to order a permanent recycling sign to be put up on the end of Union Road and Rt. 519. The signs will say, Kingwood Township Recycling Center with an arrow towards the direction of the center. Cynthia Niciecki will get together with Secretary Keller to order the signs. A motion for spending the funds for the sign will be taken at the next meeting, when a bill has been submitted to the Township for the full amount spent.

Gail Ashley asked questions regarding the results for the water well testing for the Township program that was back in September. She wanted to know if Q.C. would be notifying the Township with a copy of the results. Lois Voronin responded.

Sandra McNicol asked if anyone had attended the County meeting regarding transportation strategy. Elaine Niemann stated that she had attended the meeting and discussed what they talked about at the meeting. She noted that it was very informative.

Sandra McNicol noted that she attended a lecture last week called "Bring Nature Home". She stated that it was very interesting and informative and it was all about bringing native plants back to home properties.

Sandra McNicol explained an article she saw in the paper regarding a piece of property in Holland Township. She noted it is 425 acre preserve. She stated that the County has appealed to Greenacres asking them to purchase another lane along Rt. 519. She said they are looking into to purchasing some of the Greenacres property to make the lane. She noted that there will be public hearing at the Holland Township Municipal Building on December 9, 2009 at 6:00PM if anyone is interested. She also stated that the Road Plans are available for review at the Roads, Bridges, and Engineering on Route 12, in Flemington.
